

We are both excited and sorry to report we won't be able to accept any more campers. We have reached the capacity we feel comfortable with to ensure a positive experience and safe week for everyone. We can't wait to share our week together and are so sorry we can't take more. If you would like to place your child on a wait list you can email us at sonseekerscamp@gmail.com