Graduate celebration

Jesus tenderly engages us in everyday settings to awaken us to the wonder of his Word and the way he feeds us with grace.

Jesus prepares us to shepherd others in grace even as he restores us in our weaknesses and failures. Ministry may not be easy, but in grace Jesus uses us to build his church today.

COMMUNION TODAY

This morning we celebrate the Lord's Supper. The Bible teaches that Holy Communion is intended for those who have asked forgiveness of their sins and have made a personal, public stand for Jesus Christ in his Church, seeking to live for him daily. We invite adults and children who have done so and are actively involved in a Bible-believing church to share in the sacrament. Children and adults are encourage to publicly profess their faith and join in full participation at Communion; please talk with Pastor Carl or an Elder to arrange your public profession.

JESUS' CALL TO FOLLOW Series

Jesus calls us to be his followers & always includes us in the life he is living. We must become one with him! To be united with Jesus brings many benefits that we will explore. We belong to him and he protects us. United with Jesus we obey him as the best expression of our love. We are taken up into Jesus' prayer for us and blessed with forgiveness with which we bless others.

PRAYER

- Give thanks for Amanda Carpenter (Sunset HS) and Jordyn Feinauer (Glencoe HS) who recently graduated from high school. Pray God's blessing for them as he guides them into the next season of learning and serving

- Please continue to pray for healing and relief of pain for Nan Van Dyke who is recovering at home.

- Continue to remember Howard Spaan, Earle McLain, Stan VanderVeen, Peggy Staples, Milly Shuff, Nan Van Dyke, Gretta Bouwman and others from our church family struggling with on-going health challenges.

- Please ask God's blessing on these OHC friends this week: Earle McLain; Doug & Greta Pierce

- Pray for troops, their families, and all those who live in countries where war and terror constantly threaten. Also, PLEASE JOIN THE 641 CLUB by praying at 6pm every day for one minute for men and women fighting for freedom and our country AND PRAY FOR THE EFFORTS OF WORLD RENEW

MARRIAGE RETREAT: Sunnyslope Church is hosting a marriage retreat this fall for our sister congregations. We'll spend time together talking about how God created and redeems us to enjoy intimacy in marriage that mirrors God's relationship with us, looking at:

- Ways God designed us to connect with each other – and how you can cultivate that in marriage
 - Different ways men and women are wired for intimacy – and how to navigate that in marriage
 - Ways our own sin and brokenness create barriers in marriage – and how those can play out
 - How our faith in the gospel can break barriers, enabling us to enjoy intimacy within marriage again.
- October 13-15, at the Anchor Inn, in Lincoln City. Registration is $175.00 for two nights, breakfast and all conference material included. Register by July 31st at <https://goo.gl/forms/KRhuyjxBF5J5xPIS2>. You can send your payment to Sunnyslope Church, 197 Hrubetz Road, Salem, OR, 97302.
